That should be fine. Question, though – I thought the last TUT game was not very well received (too much time, people too busy, etc.). What's the thinking behind giving a game another go? Also, I thought we were switching to the topic divine top-5 and fact sheet approach – when do you think those will start?

Subject: OAP Tell Us Tuesdays! BINGO

Hi Gwen/Mark,

I am checking to determine whether there are any concerns with the AMD BINGO for next Tuesday, February 9th. We are not playing for prizes and the games is used as a learning tool. Any concerns you can think of? Please let me know. Thanks!
